

Transdisciplinary Confluence | Faculty Training Program (Online)

Training program : 1st to 5th December 2025, 10:30 a.m. to 01:45 p.m. | EoPT : 5th December 2025, 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Preamble

The workshop is conceived as a creative forum to rethink the teaching and practice of architecture through intersections with multiple disciplines. Architecture today cannot be confined to design and construction alone; it is a lived cultural, social, technological, behavioural and legal phenomenon. This program therefore emphasizes how architecture emerges at the confluence of diverse intellectual streams, expanding its scope and relevance in contemporary times. The structure of the program reflects this integrated vision.

Objectives

The program will urge its participants to embrace transdisciplinary approaches in both pedagogy and practice. It seeks to cultivate architectural thinking that is creative yet contextual, technologically advanced yet human-centred, and visionary yet grounded in socio-political realities. The program reaffirms architecture as not only a profession but also a confluence of knowledge systems, cultural practices, and societal aspirations.

Key Takeaways for Participants

- Gain comprehensive understanding of varied interdisciplinary subject discussed by experts.
- Acquire knowledge skills and understanding of the varied interdisciplinary subjects in order to create academic outcomes in the form of electives.
- Develop physical as well as programmatic outcomes in academia.

Post Workshop Publication

This workshop aims to culminate into a publication that will introduce ways in which one can connect various disciplines with Architecture in academics and practice. Post workshop participants will be required to conduct a transdisciplinary elective at their college based on the learnings from the workshop. The elective methodology, resource material and student output will be collected from all participants and converted into a publication. A manual that introduces ways in which one can connect various disciplines with Architecture in academics and practice.
