All architectural institutions imparting recognized architectural qualifications are required to maintain the minimum standards laid down by the Council of Architecture from time to time. These minimum standards are available on the Council's website www.coa.gov.in.

You are, therefore, advised to ensure that your institution complies with the minimum standards laid down by the Council of Architecture. The Council is in the process of conducting surprise inspections of the Institutions and any institution found not adhering to the minimum standards shall be viewed seriously which may lead to strict action against the Institution.
